MARSHALL IRE AROUSED OVER BIG 4 DELAYS

Secretary Deeply Displeased by Lack of Progress in Treaty Making.

By The Associated Press

MOSCOW, March 27—U. S. Secretary of State Marshall was reported today deeply displeased with the lack of progress in the council of foreign ministers deliberations on the German and Austrian treaties—and especially with last night's talk-filled session which accomplished nothing.

Criticisms in the American delegation were aimed as much at the work of the four-power coordinating committee as at the tangle within the council itself.

See Deliberate Stall

The committee was supposed to have completed listing council agreements and disagreements Tuesday. American and British sources blame the failure to meet that deadline on deliberate efforts by Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky to wring concessions from the western powers even in this purely technical group.

Hope for agreement on the treaties during this conference faded as the council split all along the line on minor issues as well as major ones.

Prospects for completing a peace pact for Austria—which had appeared bright—hit a snag late last night when it was disclosed that Russia had rejected an American proposal to tackle immediately the key log in the jam: definition of German assets in Austria.

Talk for 5 Hours

The ministers themselves talked for nearly five hours yesterday without reaching a single decisive agreement on the German or the Austrian treaty and Secretary of State George C. Marshall somberly declared that the council was becoming so "ensnarled" that "reasonable progress is unfortunately remote."

This situation was paralleled in a special Big Four coordinating committee, which has been working overtime since last week simply to list the items of agreement and disagreement on German issues thus far discussed without yet approaching the end of its task.

Actually, diplomatic informants said, grim conflicts of important power interests—among them control of any future German peace conference—lie beneath the surface disagreements.

FRENCH CONVICT HIM. Three times premier of France, Camille Chautemps, has been found guilty in absentia by a Versailles purge court for committing acts harmful to his country's national dignity. Now living in Chevy Chase, Md., Chautemps was sentenced to national indignity for life and his property was confiscated. To U. S. reporters, he declared his vindication fight goes on.

House Passes Bill To Trim Income Taxes

BULLETIN

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, March 27—The house passed today a Republican-backed bill slashing income taxes this year by almost $4,000,000,000. The legislation now goes to the senate, where it probably will be revised.

The Republicans beat back a Democratic motion to lay aside the bill until congress has more information on the government expenditures and revenues, as well as possible new foreign commitments.

The tax slash—if the senate and President Truman approve it—would be retroactive to Jan. 1. It would cut taxes of 25,000,000 lower income persons by 30 per cent and give a 20 per cent reduction to most others among the 46,000,000 taxpayers.

Withholding from wages and salaries would drop to lower levels on June 1, and taxpayers would get refunds on any overpayments from Jan. 1 to June 1.

However, Senator Taft (R-Ohio) already has indicated the senate will revise the measure to make the cut effective July 1, instead of Jan. 1. This would hold the tax reduction to around $1,900,000,000 this year.

Taft contends the house bill actually would cost the treasury—in reduced revenues and tax refunds—$5,700,000,000 in the fiscal year beginning July 1.

Some Democratic leaders said privately that Mr. Truman is bound to veto the bill if it reaches him in its present form.

Shortly before the house voted Rep. Engel (R-Mich.) told his colleagues that the measure "gives a man who made the biggest profits during the war the biggest tax relief."

18 MORE DEAD MINERS FOUND

35 Known Dead; 76 Still Trapped Are Given "No Chance."

By The Associated Press

CENTRALIA, Ill., March 27—Fears that the death toll of Tuesday's mine explosion ultimately would reach 111 were intensified today as the bodies of 18 more of the Centralia Coal Company's miners were brought up the shaft of No. 5 mine.

The recovery of those victims brought to 35 the number of known dead and left 76 still trapped below. A rescue squad leader gave those pinned underground "no chance at all."

A heavy snow fell over the grim setting as rescue squads, after working through the early morning hours, brought the second group of dead miners from 540 feet below the ground. Last night 18 bodies were removed to the garage, a temporary morgue. Earlier one miner removed from the mine on Tuesday died.

An unidentified rescue worker said that the bodies of the 16 brought from the pit today were twisted and bruised and clothing on some were burned, indicating they had been nearer to the explosion than the 16 miners who were found last night.

As the death toll mounted, with a rescue leader predicting it would reach 111, company officials said rescue attempts would be pushed, "we're not going to give up."

The toll of 111 dead predicted by William J. Rowekamp, rescue leader and recording secretary of the Centralia local of the AFL United Mine Workers whose members worked the mine, would rank the disaster as the greatest in the nation's coal fields since 195 lost their lives in 1928 at Mather, Pa.

The company presented a revised total of the number of miners who had been in the mine at

J. L. CREVISTON DIES AS TRUCK, AUTO COLLIDE

Companions in Hospital After Accident at Prospect and Columbia Streets.

A Marion Army Air Force veteran was killed and two young women companions injured this morning at 5 when an automobile in which they were riding was struck by a heavy-loaded trailer truck at West Columbia and South Prospect streets.

The veteran is John L. Creviston, 26, of 285 South High street, driver of the car.

In City hospital are Miss Claire Louise Kraatz, 26, of 335 Mt. Vernon avenue and Mrs. Florence Schuler, 28, of 370 Mary street. Miss Kraatz suffered a fractured right lower leg and head and body bruises. Mrs. Schuler suffered bruises of the left arm, shoulder and face and possible rib fractures. Neither is considered in serious condition.

Richard L. Sparrow, 23, of Springfield, was driver of the truck. A seven-ton vehicle, it was carrying a 16-ton load of steel.

Truck Traveling South

Police officers said the truck, driving south on South Prospect street, struck the automobile, going east on West Columbia street, in the left rear fender.

The car apparently spun around and hit a tree a couple of feet from the curb on West Columbia street just east of South Prospect. Patrolmen investigating the accident said the impact of the collision between the vehicles evidently sprung the doors on the left side of the car and when the vehicle hit the tree its occupants were thrown onto the street.

Creviston's head was believed to have struck the curb. He died at the scene of the accident of a crushed skull. The women were taken to City hospital by the Gunder and Boyd and Uncapher ambulances.

The driver of the truck was not held and proceeded on his way.

The group had attended a late show at the Palace theater and had gone to a party with friends. They were returning home when the accident happened. Another members of the party was dropped off at Orchard and West Columbia streets, a few minutes before the accident. The car is owned by Miss Kraatz's mother, Mrs. Roberta Kraatz of the Mt. Vernon avenue address.

Father of Stolen Child

Creviston was the father of a two-year-old daughter, Jean Aileen, who on July 8, 1945, a few days after her birth, was taken from City hospital in a case which attracted nationwide attention. She was taken on a Sunday and recovered two days later unharmed. Mrs. Phyllis Webster of Mansfield was found not guilty in common pleas court of the kidnapping by reason of insanity. The child now lives with her mother, Mrs. Helen Mezger Creviston of South Prospect street. The Crevistons are divorced.

Mr. Creviston was born in Marion April 12, 1920, the son of Frank and Mary Etta Bell Creviston, and lived here all his life. His mother died recently and his father now lives in Kenton.

A technical sergeant gunner in a bomb squadron which operated in Europe, he was awarded several decorations. He held the bronze star, the air medal with oak leaf cluster and the distinguished service cross. Inducted Feb. 1, 1941, he was discharged Aug. 28, 1945.

He was employed at the Holland Furnace Co. and was a member of the First Presbyterian church.

Funeral services will be held Saturday at 2 p. m. in the L. A. Axe and Son funeral home, Rev. Howard Olewiler, pastor of First Presbyterian church officiating, with burial in Marion cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home after noon Friday.

SEE BREAK IN WEATHER DUE

Cloudy and Warmer Is Forecast as Death Toll in Nation Reaches 16.

Cloudy and warmer weather was reported in store for Marion and Ohio tomorrow as most sections of the state today were recovering from Tuesday's onslaught of winter.

Throughout the United States, however, the death from the winter storm reached 16, with snowfall reported from Wyoming to Tennessee. Temperatures in New England were near zero and the storm was reported moving into Tennessee and Virginia.

Eight of the nine county schools, which were closed by a combination of flu and bad weather were reported open today, and state and county roads were reported clear.

Other sections of the state were surveying damage caused by heavy winds Monday night and Tuesday morning. Crestline schools were closed for the remainder of the week due to absences. Kenton was digging out of heavy snow drifts. Bucyrus reported slight wind damage to two planes parked at its city airport.

SCHOOLS IN COUNTY REOPENED TODAY

Activities in Marion and the county were returning to normal today following Monday night's and Tuesday morning's winter attack on the area.

Eight of the nine county schools, closed by a combination of flu and bad weather, were reported open today. LaRue school was still closed and will not reopen until next Monday. E. E. Holt, Marion school superintendent, said attendance in city schools was "much better," according to a sample check of enrollment this morning.

State and county roads in the area are clear, the state highway department and the county engineer's office reported.

The weather forecast is for occasional snow today, ending early tonight with cloudy and warmer weather Friday. Temperatures were rising today. The mercury at noon stood at 34 degrees, compared to yesterday's high of 31. Low temperature this morning was 21, with .02 inches of snow recorded. A year ago today the maximum temperature was 71.

CRESTLINE SCHOOLS CLOSED UNTIL MONDAY

CRESTLINE, March 27—Because 90 pupils in Crestline High school were absent Tuesday afternoon compared to 28 on Monday the schools closed until next Monday morning. A large number were out of the grades and flu seemed to be rapidly increasing.

Out of 134 in St. Joseph's Catholic school 40 were absent Tuesday compared to 17 Monday. School was also closed to be reopened Monday.

Strong winds early Tuesday morning caused the 50-foot chimney at the Nestle Milk Products, Inc., to crash through the roof. Street Commissioner Erwin

LICKING COUNTY COMMON PLEAS JUDGE STRICKEN

Jurist Found Dead in Bed at Newark Home.

By The Associated Press

NEWARK, O., March 27—Judge Frederic M. Black of the Licking county common pleas court was found dead in his bed today. He was 75.

The jurist sat on the bench yesterday, apparently in good health. He was found by his wife, Alice.

Judge Black, for a number of years a director and vice-president of the Ohio Manufacturers Association, was appointed to the Licking county court post in 1941. He was elected for the first time in 1942.

A graduate of Cornell university, Judge Black read law under Charles Evans Hughes, former chief justice of the U. S. supreme court and was admitted to the Ohio bar in 1894. From 1908 to 1926, he served as bankruptcy referee in Licking county.

The judge's widow survives.

Thief Snatches Woman's Purse Containing $45

A purse snatcher operated in Marion last night, making off with the purse of Miss Martha Huntsman of 192 South Vine street at 10 o'clock last night.

The man, descibed by Miss Huntsman as being about six feet tall and about 29 years of age, grabbed the purse which contained $45, at the corner of High and Church streets.

His face was partially covered by his overcoat collar and he kept one hand in his pocket, she said. After seizing the purse he warned her to keep quiet and keep moving, then ran north on High street when Miss Huntsman screamed.

A passerby attracted by her screams accompanied her to the police station, to report the theft.

Little Old Lady Quotes Bible In Plea To Save Ohio Slayer

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., March 27—A little old lady dressed in black asked Ohio's pardon and parole commission today to forgive Russell Eugene Koons of Springfield for the hatchet slaying of his mother as "God forgave David for the premeditated murder of Uriah."

The plea was made by Mrs. Lucy Nichols, a Springfield missionary, in a clemency hearing for Koons, 23, who must die April 2 unless Gov. Thomas J. Herbert intervenes.

"Grandma" Nichols, who said she soon would be 75, and had been a missionary to prisoners in the Clark county jail since she was 32, told the three men whose recommendation will guide Governor Herbert:

"I have known Eugene Koons since he was first jailed. I hold jail services every Sunday. He never missed a service. I felt that if anyone there should have services, it was he.

Sweet, Mild Disposition

"I never saw exhibited a sweeter or milder disposition. He never complained nor showed anger or ill will toward anyone for his imprisonment.

"He regretted bitterly what had happened and he always told the same story, but as if his mind was trying to reach out for something.

"Eugene is the last one on earth who would commit murder consciously. I told him 'Before you go before the supreme judge, you must tell me the truth.'

"'I did not know when I killed my mother,' he said, and there were tears in his eyes. 'I wish I could know. When I realized what I had done, I was in Dayton. I came back and gave myself up.'"

Wipes Tears From Eyes

Mrs. Nichols, who spoke evenly and slowly, occasionally wiped tears from her eyes as she related her story.

"I asked him 'Do you feel in your heart that God has forgiven you—that you can go into that electric chair, if you have to, and know you're saved?'" she continued. He did not answer then, but several months later, he said to me 'It has happened—I know I'm forgiven.'"

"Men can't understand, but God

OHIO VETERAN BONUS PROSPECTS ADVANCE

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., March 27—Bonus payment prospects for Ohio war veterans advanced "on the double" today.

A senate sub-committee recommended to its parent military affairs committee a $300,000,000 bonus program which members said last night would require additional hearings.

House sub-committee members said earlier they probably would submit a separate plan next week based on agreements reached at joint hearings by sub-committee of both houses.

Bonus recommendations of the senate group included:

Cash payments of $10 monthly for service between Dec. 7, 1941, and Sept. 2, 1945, up to a $350 maximum.

Minimum bonus to be $50 for at least 60 days service.

Payments limited to those with rank of captain or below who resided in Ohio for at least one year before entering service.

Immediate survivors of service dead to receive full payment to which deceased would have been entitled.

July 1, 1950, final day for filing bonus applications.

Bonus bonds to be retired in 15 years by setting aside $1,000,000 monthly from the state treasury with the balance to be raised by an extra levy on real estate.

Bonus payments under the tentative joint sub-committee agreement would have allowed payments for service to almost $450 and limited minimum bonuses to $200 for at least 90 days service. Heirs of service dead would have received $500.

Butter Prices Drop 3 Cents at Cincinnati

By The Associated Press

CINCINNATI, March 27—The wholesale price of butter dropped another three cents on the Cincinnati market today, making the price 68 cents a pound. Retail prices will reflect the decrease within the next few days, it was stated.

Since March 6, the wholesale price of butter has decreased 11 cents a pound here.

PLANS PROPOSED FOR PRE-MARITAL COURSE

To Be Considered at Meeting Here Friday Night.

Arrangements have been completed for a planning meeting to discuss the possibilities of sponsoring a pre-marital course for Marion young people. The meeting will be held in the reading room of the Y. M. C. A. tomororw at 7:30 p. m., sponsored by the Y. M. C. A. and the Marion Council of Churches. Earl Hale and Rev. Eldred Johnston, respective heads of those organizations, will be present to lead the discussion, it was announced.

Sponsors of the proposed course voice the belief that the whole problem of divorce, juvenile delinquency and marital infidelity, goes back to poor preparation for marriage. Consequently, they will suggest that a pre-marital course for engaged couple be sponsored semi-annually. The course would run for four successive Monday nights. A tentative plan is to have four speakers, experts in their respective fields, deal with the financial problem, the emotional problem, the physiological problem, and the religious problem of the home. It has been suggested that perhaps a banker, a psychiatrist, a doctor, and a minister could best handle these assignments.

Mr. Hale and Rev. Johnston have sent invitations to 25 married couples to attend the meeting tomorrow night to assist in working out the details of the course. They also extend the invitation to others who are concerned with this problem, it was stated.

Ohio School Lobby Stung By First Legislative Setback

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., March 27—The Ohio school lobby smarted today from its first major setback this session as the Ohio legislature cleared its desks for weekend adjournment.

Representatives for the first time in memory of legislative leaders balked at allowing school districts to approve extra levies at special and primary elections by a bare majority vote.

The house by a vote of 117 to 2 yesterday passed a measure requiring 60 per cent favorable vote for passage of school levies submitted at primary or special elections in 1947-48.

The measure now goes back to the senate which previously approved the proposal by Sen. Carl D. Sheppard (R-Summit) that such levies pass on a majority vote. Failure of senators to approve the house change probably would send the bill to a house-senate conference committee.

Now Require Majority

School levies now require only a majority vote for approval at regular elections, but for the past two years no provision has been made for submitting them at special or primary balloting.

Majority vote proponents contended the 60 per cent requirement would defeat Gov. Thomas J. Herbert's request for school districts to assume a larger share of the financial burden for school operations.

Those supporting the 60 per cent requirement asserted taxpayers should have that protection on the ground that mainly those interested in winning the levy would vote at primary or special elections.

The senate passed 33 to 1 a bill to increase pay of public utilities commissioners from $6,000 to $9,000 annually and sent it to the house. The measure also would increase assessments against utilities gross receipts from $275,000 to $375,000 a year to pay for PUCO operations.

Senate Approved Earlier

The senate some time ago voted a similar increase for utilities commissioners in a measure carrying pay hikes also for members of the board of tax appeals, liquor board and other state officials but it has been hung up in the house.

Early in the session the senate rushed an emergency bill to the house which would have increased the pay of county auditors before they started new terms this month, but it languishes in the house rules committee.

The senate also passed and sent to the house yesterday bills to increase the Ohio judicial council from 14 to 15 members by adding a juvenile judge, and to extend until the end of 1949 the right of municipal sub-divisions to refund outstanding bonds.

Measures introduced would permit municipalities to contract with cities for additional police protection during emergencies, and to continue state collection of the amusement admissions tax but to turn it back to municipalities or townships.

Would Tax Race Tracks

Sen. Robert L. Quinn (R-Jefferson) said his amusement tax bill would prevent enterprises such as race tracks from escaping the levy altogether should the state vacate that field in favor of cities as proposed in another measure now pending. Tracks outside cities could not be levied upon by counties which lack taxing power possessed by cities, Quinn explained, should the other proposal become law.

The house committee on industrial relations by a vote of 10 to 4 recommended passage of a bill by Rep. John H. Kowalk (R-Sandusky) easing restrictions on

REORANIZATION OF AGRICULTURE O.K.'D

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., March 27—senate agricultural committee today recommended for passage legislation which would reorganize the state department of agriculture. The vote was 6-0.

The proposed legislation would increase the state agriculture board from 10 to 12 members, with the provision that one of them be a veterinarian. Terms would be for six years, the members to be named by the governor and subject to confirmation by the senate.

Board members would be granted $20 per day and expenses for attending meetings, which would be held at least quarterly.

The director of agriculture would appoint an executive secretary for the department who also would be given the duty of managing the state fair. This official's salary would be fixed by the director, along with those for five division chiefs, subject to the advice and consent of the board.

Edwin J. Bath, former Ohio Farm Bureau official, now holds the executive secretary's post at a salary of $8,000. Division chiefs receive annual salaries ranging from $3,000 to $3,600.

MARKET FOR OHIO WHEAT SEEMS SURE

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., March 27 — All that wheat Ohio farmers have in the ground waiting for spring and summer suns to grow and ripen probably will find a market, it was indicated today.

Dr. J. I. Falconer, professor of rural economics at Ohio State university's college of agriculture, said that although final U. S. government policy on relief exports had not been settled, about 40 per cent of the nation's crop may be expected to go abroad, either in straight business deals with countries able to pay for it or in famine relief shipments.

This, coupled with domestic demand, make "the chances pretty good for an ample market," he said.

Dr. Falconer was unable to estimate how much of Ohio's expected harvest of 53,256,000 bushels would be exported but indicated that the share would be less than 40 per cent of the state's production. Ohio wheat is the soft variety, used mainly for pastries rather than bread flour, which takes the hard western winter and spring wheats.

Whether Ohio farmers get a bumper crop from the wheat they sowed last fall on 2,219,000 acres depends considerably on March weather, farm experts reported. The violent storms this week were not believed to have done much damage because they left a snow cover over barely-frozen ground in many parts of the state. And if the crop gets by the remaining freezes and thaws this spring, the December forecast of 53,256,000 bushels may be expected to stand.

TREASURER REPORTS ON TAX COLELCTION

Payments in First Half of Year Total $556,934.

Payment of $637,348.69 by Marion county real estate tax payers was announced today by Marion E. Hinklin, county treasurer. The figure represents total collections for the first half of 1946.

Of the total amount collected $556,934.57 was regular or current taxes, $22,974.56 was delinquent taxes and $57,439.56 was advance payment on the June collection.

The total charge for collection this year is $1,118,650.80, the county treasurer pointed out with an additional $36,346.93 delinquent taxes, making a total charge of $1,156,407.53.

Real estate tax books for the December, or first half of 1946 payment, have been closed and balanced, Mr. Hinklin stated. Settlement to the various districts will not be made, however, until the auditor's personal property tax collection is closed and he has an opportunity to balance his books against those of the county treasurer. Deadline for payment of personal property tax is April 1.

Real estate tax books for the June, or second half collection will open May 1 and close June 20, as prescribed by law, Mr. Hinklin reported.

The termination of financial aid to county schools lunch programs has not affected the distribution of surplus commodities to rural schools.

During March 68 bags of potatoes, 51 cases of tomato juice, 12 cases of orange juice and 14 cases of crushed pineapple were distributed as surplus government foodstuffs to county schools and to the county home for lunches.

THURSDAY, MARCH 27, 1947

Best Trick of 1947.

A PARTICULAR detail of the wage-rate settlement in the rubber industry looms large, if the settlement is going to be used as a national pattern.

The agreement to compromise on wage-rate offers in rubber was accomplished by a significant statement from management. L. M. Buckingham, who represented the "big four" of the industry, said:

"The rubber industry will not boost its prices, and, as a result of this reasonable settlement, it is altogether probable that rubber products prices will be reduced because of increased production. Raises will be paid not out of an inflated sales dollar, but out of a continued high volume of sales."

Not every industry can make that promise. But if any considerable number of wage negotiations in 1947 can be settled on a basis which enables management to stabilize the cost of its products, the wage rise-price rise spiral can be broken. Wage earners can be given a chance to do something with their inflated scales, besides chase inflated prices.

Wage negotiations are going on in the telephone, steel and automobile industries, among others. They are pending in the coal industry. Virtually every business enterprise in the nation must make a new contract with organized workers sometime during 1947. The question is whether further stimulus will be given to price inflation, or whether wage increases this year can be obtained within the industries which are forced to give them. Organized labor still has the power to make or break to give them. Organized labor still has the power to make or break the United States, depending on its reasonableness or the lack of it.

There are two ways to contain wage increases within an industry, as promised by the rubber industry. One is to pay the increase out of profits. The other is to pay the increase out of the earnings of higher efficiency. The latter has been the orphan child of the great debate over organized labor's campaign to freeze wage rates at war-boom levels, or higher. Labor's own efficiency has been neglected.

Labor's negotiators have asked for more and more, but they have been unable to guarantee the productivity of their clients. Employers have angled fruitlessly for assurance that higher labor costs could be recovered by at least as much work as labor performed under prewar rates. If negotiators in the rubber industry have discovered how to grant an average of $1.45½ cents an hour—11½ cents higher than the old average—with no increase in the cost of rubber products, and with a probable decrease in sight—the trick of the year has been performed.

How Not To Help Small Business

THE Federal Trade Commission, reporting on the swallowing-up of small concerns by larger ones, views the future with alarm. Wartime earnings have given large concerns sufficient funds to keep on swallowing for a number of years, it predicts. The commission therefore favors legislation which would permit it to block purchase of a company's assets if such a transaction would tend to promote monopoly.

This will not make the owners of small concerns giddy with confidence as they face the future. If the FTC can prevail upon congress to give it the kind of a law it wants, a small businessman deciding to call it a day and sell out could be reminded by federal edict of his responsibility to stay in business. If he happened to be hard-pressed by competition and in a mood to save his shirt while he still had it, his friends in Washington would be johnny-on-the-spot to make sure he lost everything. The law the FTC says it wants would amount to a death warrant signed in advance for every small businessman in the country.

What Is a Fascist?

THE House Committee on Un-American Activities emphasizes that it is investigating fascism as well as communism. Fascism is an even more nebulous "ism" than communism, especially since the defeat of the Axis. The committee has run to earth a few who have admitted that they are, or were, communists, but when somebody comes forward and announces, "I am a fascist," that will be the day.

Fascism is one of those words that makes professors of semantics lie awake nights pondering the meaning. The Soviet press hurls it around loosely, professing to believe that only a hair divides fascism and capitalism. The democracies see less and less difference between fascism and communism. As for the fascists, they aren't saying anything. Maybe they don't even know they're fascists.

Did You Know?

One of the earliest recorded cold spells in England occurred in 1285, when the ground was frozen from mid-January until the first day of spring. The result was a food shortage and a tenfold price increase.

The "oven bird", or hornero of Uruguay builds a two-room house of mud and straw atop fence-posts or telegraph poles in the South American cow-country. Sometimes they make additions up to six or seven floors.

News Behind the News

By PAUL MALLON

Background of Greek-Turk Assistance Measure.

WASHINGTON, March 27—The crowded and practically unprecedented background of the Greek-Turk aid measures is simply this:

A Russo-Bulgar-Yugoslav plan is supposed to start now to sever Macedonia from Greece, and create there a separate new Balkan state under Communist control. A spring merger of offensives to this end is supposed (common report among underground agencies including the British) to have been planned at a meeting of Zhukov, Tolbukhin and Tito last September. Simultaneously a revolt within Turkey, sponsored by Kurds encouraged by Moscow, is expected to get underway through guerrilla activities of small bands.

The Turkish part of the plan is not well organized. The Turks spend 60 per cent of their budget for arms, are convinced the revolt will lead to World War III and are willing to fight.

The Greek guerrilla forces, however, are supposed to number about 55,000 infantry, mostly Communist, supposed to enjoy excellent connivance from Bulgaria, Albania and Yugoslavia. The Albanians, for instance, have two divisions on the Greek border. The anti-government movement within Greece as a whole is regarded as being supported by perhaps 15 per cent of the population. To thwart the guerrilla effort before it gets under way, the Greek army is now moving northward, and attacking the known guerrilla areas, although they are hampered by bad communications, including destroyed railroad stock and damaged roadbeds.

Russia Hidden Partner

The average world diplomat sees more world war possibilities than exist in these potentialities, because Russia is everywhere a hidden partner, unwilling to accept open responsibility. Military men think the Communist withdrawal in North China may have been recently undertaken to clear the way for the spring Balkan campaign. At any rate it was this situation from which Britain announced withdrawal of her troops from Greece (March 21) and into which Mr. Truman proposes to move with money for a local defense line.

The money plans have now been concluded. Mr. Truman is to give $400 million in nearly any way he sees fit (outright grants, advances) of which $300 million will go to Greece, of this amount, $150 million will be purely military advances (rations, clothing) and $150 million civilian including $50 million for equipment (railroads and road reconstruction,) $20 million for agricultural rehabilitation and $20 million for internal costs including administration. The Turks are to get the other $100 million mostly in military material but including some work on the roads and improvement of railroads.

The human relief advances are to be in addition to this and centered in $50 million for Greece in a general $350 million Balkan food relief bill. In addition, the Greek War Relief Association in this country is raising $12 million under approval of the President, Herbert Hoover, Gov. Dewey and others to give medical, child and direct assistance.

None of these relief ventures, of course, is really new. The UNRRA figures show that up to last Jan. 1 we gave Greece $165 million in food, $35 million clothing, textiles and footwear; $10 million medical; $50 million agriculture; $41 million for industry, and some miscellaneous for a grand total of $358 million.

Total Aid To Greece

Thus Greece is to cost $362 million more atop the $358 million already given (largely by the United States) for a visible total of $720 million so far. The need is great, but this is not bad for a nation with an estimated 1939 population of 7 million. It represents over $100 per man, woman and child so far (probably more because the population is probably not today as large as 1939.)

The very nature of these steps shows them unlikely to involve us in war. As the Russian participation is secret the Reds are hardly likely to come out of their explosive shells. Indeed they can hardly openly oppose our efforts to sustain governments against guerrilla warfare no matter what they may do in secret. Furthermore, if Greece and Turkey really succeed in thwarting spring guerrilla operations they will have made war just that much more unlikely for this year.

The graver possibilities lie in our assumption of world leadership at this point, to continue presumably from now on. Britain is gone from the scene of major world influence. She is giving away half her empire, intending to keep presumably only Canada, Australia and South Africa. Having lost her help, presumably we are embarked on a policy of furnishing materials to protect governments outside the Soviet orbit. She protects hers directly by installing sympathetic governments and trying to get the defense cabinet posts (even France.) We move indirectly by furnishing our substance.

The British empire is disintegrating fast. The Russian empire has arisen, expanding and aggressive. We shy away from an empire of our own, which might sustain itself in resistance to Communism, but give our money to meet what we pretend to be a temporary situation. In these larger diplomatic considerations lies the danger.

About the Bees and the Flowers.

The Georgia legislature has passed a bill prohibiting diseased bees from coming into the state.

That act will be harder to enforce than Volstead's.

Imagine a queen bee's outrage at being subjected to the indignity of a physical at the hands of a stranger.

And where'll they get the stranger? Will the state advertise: WANTED AT ONCE, 5,000 Grade-A Bee Inspectors?

Overnight the universal query among Georgians could change from "Who's your Governor?" to "What's buzzing, Cousin?"

With blockades on all highways and railroads at the state line, Georgia conceivably can keep out shipments of undesirable bees . . .

Bee-legging and drone-running may develop into a honey of a racket. But let those who engage therein take care lest not only the customer get stung.

National Issues in Chicago

By RAYMOND MOLEY

CHICAGO, March 27—The election in Chicago of a mayor on April 1 has two angles of national significance. It will be a test of the continuation of the Republican tide, so evident in last November's election. And it will reveal, to an important degree, the feeling of American voters about the new Truman doctrine toward Russia. This latter issue may loom up so large in the last week that Russell W. Root, Republican candidate who has not been conceded a chance in the past two months, may finally squeeze through.

From a local standpoint, it is a strange campaign. The candidate of the Democratic organization, Martin H. Kennelly, is a man of such probity that not a word can be said against his personal or business record. Hence, the familiar Republican issue of machine graft, corruption and waste is practically useless to Republican orators. The old battle-scarred and not-too-clean machine is there, big as life, and working for Kennelly. But in its heart it knows that its candidate is not really its man in the old and easy-going sense of that term.

Kennelly's selection was born of machine despair and desperation. Mayor Edward J. Kelly, with a record-breaking service of 14 years, was willing to run despite his 70 years. But after a survey, his leaders told him he could not be elected. The election last fall had given the organization the scare of its long and prosperous life. Jacob M. Arvey, the practical politician who is the real head of Chicago's Democracy, had an alternative candidate, but two Chicago papers boomed out against this compromise. So the leaders handed the nomination to Kennelly on a silver platter.

Spoke Plainly

There were no strings attached. Just to make certain that there would be no doubts, Kennelly gave the sheepish organization leaders a stern lecture on good government and added that he would permit no political shenanigans. Kennelly is so free in his talk of honesty and efficiency that in some wards voters are dropping away because of the very righteousness of the man.

Root, the Republican, was chosen by Governor Green. There are some observers who believe Green acted too impetuously and single - handedly. His choice seemed to be born of the belief that the election was in the Republican bag. Root isn't bad, but he is not well known. He was chosen because he piloted the Republicans to victory last November. There is no serious criticism of Root, except that he is the choice of the Green state machine and that he himself is a politician.

With little in the picture to provide material for mud slinging, the campaign veers off into national and international issues. The name of Roosevelt, which is exceedingly powerful in Chicago, is invoked on behalf of the Democrat. Was not Kelly a tower of support for the great New Dealer?

Communism in the Picture

On the Republican side, Communism is widely deplored. The inference is that the Roosevelt and Truman administrations were too easy with Communism. Congressman Alvin E. O'Konski of Wisconsin, who was imported last fall to win the Poles to Republicanism, is to be brought in again.

But the new Truman doctrine confuses the picture. It now looks, at the last minutes, as if the Republicans can make a real impression by claiming that the Democrats want to get us into war. Sentiment in Chicago, both in the street and in the newspapers, seems deeply opposed to the Truman proposal.

This issue, if the Republicans make it forcefully and skillfully, may turn thousands of votes against Kennelly. Whether enough can be turned to elect Root is the big question. A week before the election the most reliable poll gave Kennelly 58 per cent of the straws. Betting odds were heavily against Root.

If Kennelly wins, Republicans nationally should learn a good lesson. They must pick the best of the crop in 1948. The Democratic party is far from worn out. Illinois Republicans may have suffered from the defeat of overconfidence.

Norman Thomas former Marion man and three times candidate for president on the Socialist ticket, had been given the right to visit Russia after leaders of his party has issued a statement saying such permission previously had not been given. Free Press Needs Criticism

By WALTER LIPPMANN

THE commision on freedom of the press which began its inquiry about three years ago has now issued its general report, which it calls "a free and responsible press."

The members of the commission were appointed by the chairman, Robert M. Hutchins, chancellor of the University of Chicago. On the principle that a good critic had better not be a producer or a playwright, or an actor, Hutchins appointed no one from the working press. He chose instead able and distinguished men from among lawyers, economists, philosophers, historians, authors, theologians and businessmen.

The inquiry was initiated however by Publisher Henry R. Luce, and most of the money to finance it was supplied by him. Luce selected Mr. Hutchins and, is, therefore, in the position of the patient who chooses his doctor and pays the doctor's bill, but does not tell the doctor what he is to tell him.

Dr. Hutchins reports that the most surprising thing about the commission's recommendations is that nothing more surprising could be proposed. I doubt that Luce, or that anyone else in the business and profession is surprised.

Since the commission believes in a free press, it, of course, ruled out all reform by way of censorship and government control. Its recommendations were bound, therefore, to be based on the principle of free criticism and voluntary self-government.

Value of Report

The value and significance of this report is that it is an effort to elucidate the axioms, to define the principles, and to mark out the field, for serious and continuing criticism of the press.

What the commission finds to criticize is quite secondary to its brave, and often brilliant attempt to show how those who cherish freedom can equip themselves intellectually and morally to criticize a free press. The report is in the last analysis, a critique of criticism in a field where criticism is as essential as in any other, but has been much neglected.

"Free expression" says the report is "unique among liberties; it promotes and protects all the rest."

A free press does this by reporting, reviewing, explaining and criticizing what is done and said and thought. The question, then, is how the press itself, since it is a primary institution of a free country, is to be reported, reviewed, explained, and criticized?

What is sauce for the goose—that is to say for public men, businessmen, bankers, labor leaders, artists—must be sauce for the gander, for reporters, editors, commentators, book reviewers, dramatic critics.

Yet, in practice, there is no regular and serious criticism of the press. A book about Russia will be reviewed as soon as it is published. The reports and comments on the Moscow conference will, on the whole, not be reviewed.

Luce would not have financed this inquiry had he not recognized that criticism ought not to be so much as it is a one-way street—the uncriticized press criticizing all other institutions and activities. It is not good for the press, and it is not safe.

Serious, searching and regular criticism of the press is the ultimate safeguard of its freedom. The lack of it deprives the press itself of the benefits of the very principle of which the press is, in relation to everything else, the chief exponent.

The problem is a specially important form of the question: Who watches the watchman, who inspects the inspector, who polices the policeman? The commissioners are not, I think, so clear on this point as they might have been.

"We recommend" they say "that the members of the press engage in vigorous mutual criticism."

There they needed, but missed, the advice of the working members of the press. They are not talking about vigorous debate on public issues. For there is plenty of that. They are talking about newspapermen criticizing other newspapermen in their newspapers.

We are all tempted, and now and then we indulge, but on the whole we refrain. And the reasons are good reasons. They are the same reasons which make it very rare indeed that a lawyer or a doctor or an actor or a professor will speak out publicly and say how badly the lawyer argued his case, how inexpertly the doctor diagnosed the disease, how lamely the actor performed.

For there is a fellowship among newspapermen as there is in other crafts and professions. They are not lone wolves. They have to see each other, meet together, and work together, and life would become intolerable, as it would in a university faculty or an officers' mess, if they practiced vigorous mutual criticism in public.

I may say that I have tried it and have had it tried on me, and my conclusion is that the hard feelings it causes are out of all proportion to the public benefits it causes.

Mutual criticism, like marital criticism, if it is publicly made, is too hard for mortal men to take. The good critic should be an outsider, like Hutchins as regards the press, for personal detachment is necessary to good criticism.

So while vigorous criticism of the press is most necessary to the welfare of the press, it will have to come from those who are outside the press.

The Once Over

By H. I. PHILLIPS

The American Way

HONORABLE HARRY TRUMAN,
Washington, D. C.

DEAR PRESIDENT:

Well, you could of knocked me over with a Key West mackeral. The idea of Washington doing anything to stymie the Communists except in distant countries, seemed a welsh rarebit dream to me, but you have crossed me up. You have decided that a government which can put up $400,000,000 to bring the Communists out of the mountains of Greece can do something to bring 'em down out of the foothills of America. Now you're talking.

* * *

It had all America laughing fit to split its sides, those solemn hifalutin warnings about the dangers of letting the Communists get stronger in Greece, Turkey and a dozen other countries most Americans can't locate, while all over the United States fellow travelers sat in government offices with their feet on their desks and drawing money from Uncle Sam while they thought up new ways to steam up a revolution.

You don't have to go to no mountains, Harry, to locate the boys who are hell bent for scuttling the American system. Just up one flight in any federal office building will find plenty, and you can do well, too, on the ground floor and on the upper levels. In fact some of our fastest working followers of the Moscow line are on the upper levels and there has been lots of evidence that the hoter a guy was for the Joe Stalin routine the better job he got in government bureaus.

Well, anyhow, Harry, you don't know how your decision to give American patriots the same break you would give the Greek and Turkish patriots has cheered this country. A lot of people had about decided that while Washington would do anything to help democracy five or ten thousand miles away it was too busy to rescue it in its own backyard.

You have no idea, Harry, how many lovers of America have been worrying and crying "What goes?" They think they have seen our well-organized gangs of Communists in the hills of America. The only difference between them and the ones in Greece is that they come in and out of the hills by express elevators, as oftener, speak on our best forums, write our best sellers and are even put on our federal payrolls so they will escape the tough going of the ones in the Greek mountains.

"Look, he wants $400,000,000 to stop Communists in Greece! He wants the United States to go all out and fight 'em all over the earth. "Americans have been saying, "But right here in the front parlor he don't even ask for the operator's license!"

Which is why there is so much cheering now that you have put the importance of saving Greece on a par with saving the United States. I was afraid Washington might be rating America behind Greece and Turkey in the order of importance. So thanks for your assurance that the United States counts, too.

Yours gratefully,
ELMER

Our Own Scoop

By TRUMAN TWILL

With a smirk at the society department, which wasn't there, some 250 guests recently attended an after-bedtime fire in our neighborhood, which was decorated for the occasion with hose carts, pumpers, festooned fire hoses, spotlights, policemen waving flashlights and a traffic jam.

The fire was served hot to all comers for 30 minutes and cheered heartily by the younger set, due to the fact a change in the direction and velocity of the wind might have wiped out a nearby schoolhouse. The fire chief and his helpers poured. No one was seriously hurt.

Outstanding among the many unusual costumes noticed was that worn by Mrs. B. Ina Command, famed for the dash and verve of her wardrobe and voted, in 1881, best-dressed woman of the year. Mrs. Command wore a purple bathrobe, high-lighted with a random yoke of egg yolk, and set off startlingly with assorted polka-dots of soup and gravy around the waist. This unusual costume was completed with a babushka cunningly contrived of a hall rug.

Subject of many oh's and ah's was the highly original outfit worn by Mrs. H. L. Dromato, nee Mary Oldsmobile. The eye-catching detail of the young matron's getup was a wisp of powder-blue nightie protruding from the aft hatch of a pair of old fishing pants which the wearer confided to this reporter belonged to her husband, who came late to the fire because she found his pants first, yanh. Mrs. Dromato wore pink mules and an overseas cap.

The photographers, dull fellows, would have popped their bulbs madly had they spotted the Fey outfit improvised by Fotheringame H. Bitt, well-known man-about-town. F. H. B., it seems, sleeps in half a dozen yards of outing flannel tailored like a chute, to keep his feet warm.

This he had stuffed, to the best of his limited ability, into a pair of trousers he had been saving for a fire some day, but these unfortunately could not accommodate all that damage, which gave old F. H. B. no choice but to wear it outside, held up after a fashion under his overcoat—after a fashion, ha ha.

Nothing but a dog fight brings out more weird costumes than an after-feditime fire. Gentlemen present showed a decided fondness for beat-up furnace hats and their grandchildren's stocking caps. One native who wouldn't shoot a pool on a bet showed up in a hunting outfit. None of the ladies had taken time to add coloring and were the shade of margarine. For good measure many of the gentlemen had neglected to add their teeth and eye-glasses. It was a lovely fire—and we are sorry the society department got scooped.

SAYS GREEK AID DIMS WAR

Patterson Tells Congress Plan Is in Direction Away from Conflict.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, March 27 — Secretary of War Patterson asserted today that the administration's $400,000,000 measure to bulwark Greece and Turkey against communism is not in the direction—but away from it."

The opinion was expressed to the senate foreign affairs committee which is conducting hearings on the proposal to send "limited" military missions, as well as arms, to the two Mediterranean countries.

Patterson was asked by Rep. Vorys (R-Ohio) what the term "limited" meant in numbers.

"Somewhere from 10 to 40," Patterson replied. That is our present estimate. It is based on the assumption that the British military mission will continue (in Greece) for the time being at

"Greece and Turkey"

Patterson "Comparable"

Senator Wherry (R-Neb) observed that would be very comfortable for the American people if we could tell that out because this is the only sort of blank check-

Wherry added that he "had in mind" offering an amendment limiting the military missions to each country. He asked:

"Would you have any objection?"

Patterson: "No, sir."

Wherry's suggestion is one of a growing crop of proposals in congress to write limitations into the bill as prepared by the administration. As the measure would give President Truman broad general authority to lend or give up to $400,000,000 to the Turks and Greeks and send American military men and civilian government employes to help those countries.

REV. N. H. BILLINGS SPEAKS AT BIBLE CLASS MEETING

Wednesday Noon Group Meets at Y.M.C.A.

Rev. N. H. Billings, pastor of the Christian and Missionary Alliance was the speaker at yesterday's meeting of the Wednesday Noon Bible class.

He took his text from the book of John, chapter 12, verses 12 to 19. He elaborated on the point that the same group which cried hosanna on Palm Sunday cried to crucify Him a week later. He said that many persons cry hosanna on the Lord's day but crucify Him during the week by their lives.

Many of those who cried hosanna merely had an emotional experience but man's need is greater than that. We need to be born again according to the word of God, he said.

He quoted Romas in saying, "Faith cometh by hearing and hearing by the word of God."

Carl Campbell presided at the meeting and about 23 persons were present.

THE FREEDOM and comforts which citizens of the United States enjoy, as seen through the eyes of a woman who has known the yoke of the oppressor and whose mother fled for months on end in fear of losing her life, were pictured in an informal talk by Mrs. Raina Boycheff of Toledo, a native of Bulgaria, last evening at the Federation Home where members of the Literature Study club entertained with their annual guest party.

Wearing the richly embroidered dress of her native land, the dark-eyed loyal American voiced her appreciation and almost endless wonderment at her own life as an average American woman, and in almost the same breath expressed regret that the less fortunate women relatives overseas could not share it with her. The greatest things here are not the material ones, she reminded her audience, but the freedom, the feeling of not being afraid and to feel there are no secret places where one must hide from an enemy. She pictured the life of the girls and women of Bulgaria and told of the customs prevailing in her home and village. Before coming to the United States Mrs. Boycheff studied at the American college. Mrs. Boycheff had with her many richly embroidered articles, a doll costumed in a replica of her dress as a girl and a distaff on which she spun wool.

The guests were welcomed by Mrs. W. C. Richardson, president of the club and for the musical part of the program Miss Wanda McMahan, pianist, played a group of three numbers, "Prelude," Chopin, "Etude Fantastique," Friml and "Memories" by Black. The program hour was in charge of Mrs. H. E. Webster.

Following Mrs. Boycheff's talk the guests were invited to the dining room where Mrs. Richardson and Mrs. J. C. Chaney presided. The table, lighted with pink, yellow and white candles in crystal holders, was in a spring garden motif. Flowers in pastel shades set in candy mints with gay ribbon and cellophane holders, formed the table decoration and the guests were asked to take one as favors.

Present with Mrs. Boycheff, who is the houseguest of Mrs. H. E. Webster, were Mrs. L. E. Walters, Miss Emily Wilson, Mrs. O. C. Alspach, Mrs. Harry Thompson, Mrs. Ralph Terrall, Mrs. Ellen Wiedemann, Mrs. R. C. Alexander, Mrs. Jesse Mitchell, Mrs. E. E. Holt, Miss Ruth Edwards, Miss Philomen Gregg, Mrs. Paul Schwemley, Mrs. A. T. Allen, Mrs. Harry Hammond, Miss Berenice Christian, Mrs. J. Fred Dombaugh, Mrs. Richard Slack, Mrs. J. Halberstein, Miss Mary Ernestine Smith, Miss Anna Denning, Mrs. Arthur Young, Mrs. Dewey N. Bohyer, Mrs. E. Paul Huffman and Miss Edna S. Dutton.

The social hour was in charge of the social committee, Mrs. A. L. Loeb, chairman, Mrs. N. S. Hearn, Miss Ruth Roe, Miss Irene Huhn and Mrs. G. F. Rinker.

THE Altrurian club celebrated the twenty-ninth anniversary of its organization with a 1 o'clock luncheon Tuesday at Hotel Harding. The Easter theme was carried out in the decorations with a bouquet of tulips centering the table and candles in crystal holders. Favors were nut baskets. Mrs. O. J. Ricker and Mrs. Ada Geddis were in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. George Barnes, the only living charter member, was presented with a plant. Roll call was answered with humorous sayings and the afternoon was spent socially. The club voted to endorse the senate bill which will provide additional state aid for the public schools.

The Welcome Wagon Newcomers club met for a 1 o'clock luncheon Tuesday in the club rooms at the Y.M.C.A. Decorations were in keeping with the Easter season. Mrs. O. R. Eylar, vice president, presided in the absence of the president, Mrs. Forest Flockencier. Mrs. Jules Kepling, city hostess, introduced the following guests, Mrs. D. A. Cuthbert, Mrs. H. I. Smith, Mrs. T. D. Scott, Mrs. Donald Creasap and Mrs. Henry Lyons. The social committee for the day was Mrs. E. N. Snyder, chairman, Mrs. Ralph Shick, Mrs. W. C. Richardson and Mrs. B. M. Rutter.

The Marion Sorosis club met Monday evening at the Federation Home on East Center street with Mrs. Harry Merchant and Mrs. Glen Toms serving as hostesses. For the program, Mrs. Harold Arbogast discussed a paper on "Orchid Hunting in Mexico," and Mrs. Toms presented a paper on "The Growing of Unusual Flowers." The next meeting will be a dinner meeting April 14 at Ringer's Inn.

Mrs. John Gillis and Mrs. V. D. Felt were named delegates to the Central district conference to be held at Upper Sandusky April 10, at a meeting of the executive board of the Marion Federation of the Child Conservaton league Monday night at Ringer's Inn. Other business included the indorsement of House Bill No. 123 which provides aid for the physically-handicapped pre-school age child. Refreshments were served.

A contribution of $5 was made to the Cancer Research fund at a meeting of the Starlight club Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Tom Greenland of Davids street. Bridge was played, honors for high scores going to Mrs. Myron Gibson and Mrs. George Reinwald. Mrs. Jacob Ebert received the consolation award and Mrs. Evaninne Scheitler received a special award.

Mrs. Don Jerew was hostess for a business meeting of Beta Gamma chapter, Lambda Chi Omega sorority, Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Henry Schuler Jr. of 370 Mary street. Mrs. Robert Brown was elected worthy guide to fill the vacancy made by the resignation of Miss Georgia Kraner, a bride-elect of this month.

Plans were made for a pledge party to be held Tuesday evening, April 1, at Ringer's Inn with Mrs. Howard Weber as hostess. Mrs. Henry Schuler Jr. was appointed rush captain and also chairman for the Mother's day banquet and formal initiation which will be held at Hotel Harding May 13. Serving on the committee with Mrs. Schuler are Mrs. Don Jerew, Mrs. Howard Weber and Mrs. Hubert Goerlich. Following the business session refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Henry Schuler Jr., and Mrs. Wayne Barnhill.

Farm Youths in C. of C. Gilt Program Attend Meeting Here

Marion county farm youths who are participating in the Chamber of Commerce agricultural committee's bred gilt program were honored Wednesday noon in a luncheon meeting held in the Y.M.C.A.

The youths were awarded registered gilts last fall by the agricultural committee for outstanding farming ability. They were nominated by their teachers and 4-H club advisors.

Those present at the luncheon were Joseph Lawrence of near Marion, Dale Rinehart of near Galion, Ray and Donald Redd of near Prospect, Paul Sester of near Marion, John Forrey of near Morral and Donald Johnson of near Marion. Richard Reece, another holder of a Chamber gilt, was unable to attend.

Youths Introduced

The youths were introduced by Lloyd Lutz, Marion county 4-H club advisor, who told of projects which the youths were carrying. The program was broadcast over radio station WMRN.

Howard Guthery, representing the Chamber of Commerce, gave a short address of welcome. Principal address was made by Dr. W. D. McClaskey, Marion county inseminator, who discussed improved practices in swine production.

Also appearing on the program was James Conley of Morral, one of the six Marion county youths to receive the first gilts presented by the committee in the fall of 1944. He told the group what he had accomplished with his Chamber gilt and explained what could be expected from sows given proper care and treatment.

Since the agriculture committee began its bred gilt program in 1944 it has awarded 19 gilts to Marion county youths and hopes to expand its program this fall.

More than 20 persons attended the luncheon, with Marion Clark, agricultural committee chairman, presiding.

Reports On Success

Conley told the group his gilt since 1944 has farrowed 4 litters of pigs. From the first litter of 12 she raised 11, one of which was turned back to the Chamber's agricultural committee according to contract. In her second litter she farrowed 10 pigs and raised all of them, in her third litter she farrowed 11 and raised nine and in her fourth litter she farrowed 12 and raised 10.

The youth pointed out that to date the sow has produced 45 pigs and raised 40 for a total value of $1,397.74. She is due to farrow her fifth litter tomorrow. She has won 12 blue ribbons and two red ribbons at Marion county fairs and has been champion of the open class show.

A gilt from the original sow has produced and sold about $1,200 worth of pigs for market and breeding purposes.

CLEVELAND CHURCH FIRE FATAL TO ONE

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, March 27 — A spectacular fire which destroyed the 80-year-old Franklin boulevard Methodist church last night claimed the life of a fire captain and critically injured a fireman.

The blaze, fanned by high winds, spread to two adjoining two-story frame houses and for a time threatened an entire block.

The men were buried under tons of brick when a rear wall of the old church collapsed.

Capt. Theodore P. Brenyas, 49, acting chief of the 11th Battalion and a member of the fire department 24 years, died of a fractured skull an hour after he had been pulled from the wreckage.

Michael B. Ruddy, 60, a fireman 41 years, suffered fractures of both legs, head injuries and burns about his face.

Firemen, responding to a five-alarm summons, followed by a special alarm, which brought 19 pieces of equipment to the scene, battled the flames for five hours before they extinguished the blaze.

About 40 members of the executive group of the church were holding a dinner and business meeting in the basement of the church when the fire broke out. All escaped uninjured.

The fire was believed to have started in the organ loft of the church on the second floor. Second Assistant Fire Chief Elmer T. Cain estimated damage to the church at $90,000 and placed the damage to the two-family houses which burned at $3,000 each.

MINERS

the time of the blast. Vice President W. P. Young said 142 men had been in the mine and 31 had been removed alive. Earlier he said 151 had been below and 30 had been rescued alive.

Echoed by Others

Rowenkamp's views were echoed by other rescue workers who said that not a single victim has been taken alive from the mine since Tuesday night several hours after the explosion.

Opinions varied widely as to the length of time that would be required to complete exploration of the more than 3½ mile tunnel, 540 feet below ground, in which the trapped men had been working Driscoll O. Scanlan, an Illinois state mine inspector, said because of slow progress it might take a week to probe to the end of the seven-foot high passage.

A federal mine inspector said the squad of 30 who worked grimly through the night had "checked all but two entries on the east-west passage" and said he believed the men still unaccounted for were in these side passages.

Bodies taken from the mine were moved temporarily to an improvised morgue in a nearby bus garage.

Other Developments Noted

Meanwhile there were these other developments:

1. In Washington the U. S. senate ordered an investigation of the disaster after Senator Brooks (R-Ill) asserted there had been violations of safety codes under federal administration. Soft coal mines generally have been in government possession since last spring. At Centralia Vice President Young of the coal company withheld comment on the senate investigation until he had been more fully informed.

2 Rowekamp made public a letter the union local had sent to Governor Dwight Green of Illinois a year ago asking the governor "to please save our lives, to please make the (state) department of mines and minerals enforce the laws (at the mine)... before we have a dust explosion."

Governor Green's office said in a statement that such a letter had been received and that the governor had requested the department concerned to give it "full and complete consideration" The governor also released a report to him. from the committee named by the state department to investigate charges made in the letter, which related that "the complaint sounds a good deal worse than it really is."

3 Circuit Judge Ralph L. Maxwell said in a statement he would instruct the Washington county grand jury to conduct an inquiry to determine if any criminal negligence was involved in the explosion. The jury will meet next April 14.

4. A state inspection of the mine made a week before the disaster showed the mine was "not adequately rock dusted," that dirty haulage roads should be cleansed and sprinkled and ventilation increased at various points The inspection report also stated recommendations of previous inspections had "not been complied with and should be complied with."

School Strike Goes On As Mediators Battle

By The Associated Press

CINCINNATI, March 27—Settlement of the week-old school strike at North College Hill hit another snag last night when the two opposing factions on a 10-man arbitration board cancelled a scheduled meeting, charging each other with violation of confidence.

Howard Wirtz, who acted as mediator when the board met for the first time Tuesday in an effort to settle the dispute, said it had been agreed that "nothing would be said publicly about what went on.

"But one of the newspapers printed a story," he said, "telling what it said it had learned took place at the meeting. Each group accused the other of violating the confidence. They cancelled last night's meeting and now I don't know when we'll meet again."

Miss Moore was killed two months ago in an airplane crash at Copenhagen

Board of Education At Springfield Told To Act or Resign

By The Associated Press

SPRINGFILLD, O, March 27—The president of the Greater Springfield and Clark County association today called on the Springfield board of education "either to act or to resign."

The formal statement by Ralph H. Wetherbee came as a result of injury from falling plaster to two pupils at Elmwood grade school last Tuesday.

Bruce Kepes, 8, received injuries necessitating the amputation of the index finger on the boy's left hand, and Larry Simms, 7, was injured on the right hand.

Pointing out Springfield citizens voted $3,652,000 for the improvement of school buildings more than a year ago, Wetherbee said:

"Either the board of education should really assume the responsibilities of its office or it should resign and let other citizens with a more aggressive interest in good schools step in"

Wetherbee accused the board of "dilatory tactics" in the carrying out of the school' improvement program and said the board showed "a lack of interest" during "innumerable" meetings with representatives of the Greater Springfield association

The association was sponsor of the $3,652,000 improvement program a year ago.

Auto Workers Map Final Wage Strategy

By The Associated Press

LOUISVILLE, Ky, March 27—Final details for strategy to be used in campaigns for wage and insurance demands among the nation's automobile manufacturers were mapped here yesterday as the 22-man international executive committee of the CIO-United Auto Workers union ended a 10-day meeting.

The UAW's demand for an 23½ cent hourly wage boost was presented to General Motors corporation recently.

A special meeting of the boards has been called for April 14 in New York where insurance companies have been asked to submit bids on a proposed insurance program which the union is asking employers to finance.

UAW President Walter P Reuther declined to say yesterday what he thought about progress toward intra-union harmony.

WARN OF DANGER TO FREEDOM OF PRESS

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, March 27—A warning that the freedom of American newspapers, radio, motion pictures, magazines and books was in danger was given today by a commission of educators and others who have just completed a three-year study of the question.

The report of the commission on freedom of the press, headed by Robert M. Hutchins, chancellor of the University of Chicago, was published in book form under the title "A Free and Responsible Press." In its definition of "press", the commission included radio, motion pictures, books and magazines as well as newspapers, and of these five media of expression the report said the "crisis" today is "simply a stage in the long struggle for free expression" and that freedom will not be 'swept away overnight."

The danger, it said, "is in part the consequence of the economic structure of the press, in part the consequence of the industrial organization of modern society, and in part the result of the failure of the directors of the press to recognize the press needs of a modern nation and accept the responsibilities which those needs impose upon them."

The commission said that while the importance of the press to the people has greatly increased with its developments "as an instrument of mass communication," the proportion of people who can express their opinions through the press has "greatly decreased"

"The few who are able to use the machinery of the press, have not provided a service adequate to the needs of the society," the commission asserted It said they "have engaged from time to time in practices which the society condemns and which, if continued, it will inevitably undertake to regulate or control."

Gruber said in an interview that his mission to Moscow, undertaken at the invitation of the council of foreign ministers, was to get a treaty as soon as possible and make sure, in so far as was possible, that Austria obtained a fair treaty.

He said he was ready to discuss fully with the council points which Austria considered the most important.

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, March 27—The federal bureau of investigation today requested a description of Langley Collyer, 61, as police continued rummaging through his junk-packed Fifth avenue house for the little man who seemed not to be there.

An 11-state alarm has been issued for Langley, unseen since last Thursday. His brother Homer, 65, with whom he turned the big Harlem house into a hermitage back in 1909, was found dead of a heart attack in the house last Friday.

Now police doubt that Langley is alive in the house. More likely, they say, if he's alive he has found himself another hideaway.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Apple Tree Versus Wheat Field

If you ever visit Jeb Crowell's farm, he'll take you right out on that back porch of his and show you his apple tree.

"There," says Jeb, "is nature's noblest creation—fifty years, and bearin' still the finest cider apples in the county!"

But last fall, when a group of us was there, Lud Denny points across the river to his grain fields and says: "There's an even finer sight! Acres and acres of golden grain you can make dozens of appetizing things with—including wholesome, sparkling beer."

Both of them got so eloquent on the subject, that the rest of us worked up quite a thirst; so Jeb goes to the icebox for beer and cider. And when the refreshments come, Lud chooses cider, and Jeb takes the beer!

From where I sit, that's the answer to most disputes. You can talk all you want, but when it comes to tastes and preferences, there's just no argument.

U.S. STRIVES TO GET PHONE STRIKE TRUCE

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, March 27—The government, its wartime powers to seize strike-bound industries just running out, found itself in the role of peacemaker today in the gathering telephone crisis.

A walkout by 287,000 members of the National Federation of Telephone Workers is scheduled for April 7, the day after Easter—and there are prospects that some radio network programs as well as many telephone services may feel the effect of the strike if it materializes.

Direct management-union negotiations are stalled over the principle of industry-wide bargaining.

The independent NFTW wants to negotiate its ten contract demands, including a $12 weekly pay increase, on a nationwide basis. The American Telephone and Telegraph Company, nerve center of the sprawling Bell telephone system, insists that it will bargain only through its various operating companies, with local conditions taken into account.

Assistant Secretary of Labor John W. Gibson conferred with A. T. and T. officials in New York yesterday. He was expected to meet here today with President Joseph A. Beirne and other NFTW leaders. Gibson was able to effect a last-minute settlement of a similar dispute a year ago.

But at that time, the government had recourse to two laws that would have permitted seizure of the entire telephone industry.

One was the Smith-Connally war labor disputes act which went out the window so far as seizure is concerned when President Truman declared an end to hostilities last Dec. 31.

The other was the second war powers act which expires at midnight Monday, March 31.

While Mr. Thuman has asked that some of his authority under that act be extended, he did not seek to keep the seizure power.

DEMOCRATIC HEADS INVOLVED BY INQUIRY

By The Associated Press

YOUNGSTOWN, O., March 27—Names of Democratic chairmen of Mahoning and Trumbull counties were brought into testimony yesterday at the state liquor control board hearing on issuance of private club liquor permits.

Liquor Department Investigator H. A. Watson testified yesterday that Dominic DiMauro, president of the Amerital club at Warren, said last month Frank Cickelli, Trumbull Democratic chairman, wired a club official saying he had not received a $1,000 fee in addition to the regular $200 license fee.

Assistant Attorney General Charles Schnurr said in opening sessions of the board investigation this week that Cickelli and John Vitullo, Mahoning Democratic chairman, had aided other persons to obtain club licenses which were later revoked by the board.

Appearing as a witness, DiMauro emphatically denied the alleged conversation with Investigator Watson.

Vitullo also was named yesterday in the case of the McGuffey Athletic club of Youngstown, when Assistant Attorney General George Costello read an alleged letter from Vitullo to Harlan Chapman, permit chief of the administration of ex-Gov. Frank J. Lausche, which recommended issuance of a permit to the club.

The letter also allegedly said: "These boys have been a great help politically and we want to keep them that way. Please give this your personal attention."

The board revoked licenses of the McGuffey, Amerital and American-Italian Education clubs. The VFW Post No. 5647 of Wellsville and Fraternal Order of Bees of East Palestine voluntarily surrendered their permits, increasing the number of area licenses cancelled by the board in hearings this week to 16.

Following his arrest by state agents led by Schaurr, Patsy Thomas, 24, named proprietor of the Fifth Avenue cafe here, pleaded innocent yesterday to a charge of selling whisky without a license.

Rev. J. I. Selm, pastor of Bethany and North Salem Lutheran churches, will officiate and burial will be made in Wharton cemetery.

Microscope Magnifies Objects 30,000 Times

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, March 27 — An electronic microscope capable of enlarging objects 22,000 diameters and, by use of photography, increasing the original size of particles 30,000 times, has been placed in operation at Case School of Applied Science, Case officials reported today.

The instrument, which obtains 10 times the magnification of ordinary lens microscopes, could magnify a dime to a width of about a mile—but is being used by researchers to explore chemical secrets.

Used to study texture of synthetic rubber latex particles, metals for airplane engines and paint pigments, the microscope operates by passage of a stream of electrons through an object and projection of the object's image upon a fluorescent screen.

DAILY LENTEN MEDITATIONS

IN THE CHRIST OF THE CROSS WE GLORY

Today's text "If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God Colossians 3 1.

"HE IS not here, but is risen," said the messengers to the women at the sepulchre. Easter confirms again in our hearts the great truth that we worship a Living Saviour We have assurance that "He that believeth in Me shall never die." God created man to be immortal.

However, immortality is not alone the extension of life beyond the experience we call death Christians are to daily think thoughts and do acts that deserve immortality Eternal life is a quality of life higher in devotion Not time alone but the extension of our faith so that our affections are constantly on the Christ of the Cross Be done, then, with thoughts, interests, and deeds that destroy life and lay hold of that which Christ would say deserves immortality.

May God help us so to live in His spirit that daily we may pass from death of the soul into eternal life by faith in our Resurrected and Living Saviour.

REV. R. W. FAULKNER,
Pastor, Calvary Evangelical United Brethren Church.

YOUR HEALTH

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

Measles

Measles must not be looked upon as just a simple and harmless disease of childhood. In young infants or sickly children it often turns out to be a very serious and even disastrous business.

Fortunately today, if such children are by some mischance exposed to measles, we can still protect them against its worst effects It is very important that this be done. Heretofore, a number of preparations have been used for this purpose. Among them are convalescent serum which is blood serum taken from a patient who is just recovering from measles, blood serum taken from a number of adults, and extracts made from the afterbirth called placental immune globulin.

According to Drs. Lewis K. Sweet and Thorval L. Hickman of Washington, D. C., what is known as gamma globulin is highly effective in protecting children against measles when it is injected shortly after the child is exposed to the disease. Gamma globulin is obtained from a part of the protein substances in the blood, known as serum albumin and serum globulin

Gamma globulin was given to 267 children who had not had measles and who were exposed to it; 241 of them were observed long enough to know the results obtained. Of these, 50 developed mild measles while only 7 developed measles of average severity. In only one instance was there any complication of measles and this was a mild infection of the middle ear. None of the children had any reactions to the injections of gamma globulin.

When children are given these injections the object in most instances is not to protect the child completely, so that he does not get the measles but, rather, to protect him to the degree that he gets only a mild attack. Then as a rule, he will be permanently protected against this disorder.

The amount of the preparation given depends on the child's age and size, and for how long a period he was exposed to the infection. Then, too, the period of time which elapses between the time he was exposed and the period when the globulin is given will determine to a great degree whether the child is completely protected or just develops a mild case of measles.

Parents should remember that measles can be a serious condition and usually is to the very young child and if the child is exposed, they should promptly see to it that he is given one of the protecting substances which modern medical science has developed for this purpose.

BIGGEST U.S. BOMBER SAVED

$2,000,000 B-36 Lands with Minor Damage After 12 Bail Out.

By The Associated Press

FORT WORTH, Tex., March 27—The Army Air Forces' $20,000,000 B-36, heralded as able to carry an atomic bomb to any spot in any region in the world and return, is safe to fly another day.

Although the plane's massive landing gear was damaged, Pilot B. A. Erickson and Co-Pilot Chris Green nursed the air giant to a smooth stop on the Fort Worth Army Air Field last night as hundreds of soldiers and civilian spectators cheered.

Two hours earlier, the huge plane, world's largest land bomber, had disgorged 12 of the 14 men aboard. A stiff wind caught their parachutes and tossed them over a wide section of the rolling hill country west of Fort Worth. Six of the men were injured in landing.

The necessity of making an emergency landing became apparent soon after the 139-ton experimental bomber took the air on its 15th test flight yesterday. Through the long intervening hours, as it burned up excess gasoline and dropped its passengers, the plane was in radio contact with the air base control tower.

Roland G. Mayer, manager of the Fort Worth division of Consolidated-Vultee Aircraft Corporation, builder of the B-36, praised the "wonderful skill" of the pilots, both Convair men.

"I was up in the tower today, listening to Green giving orders to the tower men," Mayer said. "He's a slow-talking Texan from Cleburne and you could tell that it was just another day's work to him."

Balancing the great bulk of the machine so that its weight bore chiefly on its undamaged left landing gear, the pilots rolled it to a gentle stop. It settled slowly on the right wheel, where a strut to hold it in a straight downward position had failed.

An official of Consolidated in New York said the pilots had "saved a $20,000,000 plane," by handling it so "delicately" that no damage was done.

FARMERS HAVE FOUR DAYS TO SIGN FOR AAA PLANS

Conservation Deadline Is April 1 in County.

Marion county farmers have only four more days in which to sign farm plans for participation in the 1947 AAA conservation program, County AAA Chairman Frank G. Montgomery declared today. Deadline for signing farm plans is April 1.

Of the total 2,134 farms listed by the AAA in Marion county 1,350 have now signed up for AAA participation this year. The farm plans indicate that a majority of the farmers will participate in fertilizer and lime application practices, Mr. Montgomery said. He warned that farmers who do not sign farm plans before the deadline will not be eligible for soil building practice payments this year. Marion county's allocation for the AA program is $80,116.

AAA payments were made last year on 1,450 farms in Marion county with $87,732 paid out for participation in soil building.

WIDESPREAD SNOWFALL AS WINTER LINGERS ON

By The Associated Press

There were new falls of snow from Wyoming southeastward to western Kentucky and into Tennessee and unseasonably chilly temperature in the midwest and east today as winter continued to overstay its seasonal schedule.

The violent early spring wind and snow storm that spread over the eastern half of the country, causing widespread property damage and at least 16 deaths, moved into northern Quebec. Winds had diminished but temperatures dropped to near zero in Maine and were below freezing in the other New England states. Snow flurries were general over the Appalachian region.

The U. S. weather bureau at Chicago said the new snow storm centered in Oklahoma and was moving rapidly eastward, headed for Arkansas and into Tennessee and Virginia today and tonight. Falls of two inches were reported in parts of Missouri and Nebraska as the storm moved out of Wyoming. Rain fell in southern Kansas and southwestern Missouri.

The body will arrive here early Saturday.

knows if you've repented. From that time on I never saw him waver. Before he left Springfield, to go to the penitentiary, he said 'I will be glad to serve the rest of my life in atonement. I would like to live to suffer it out.'"

Raising her voice a little, Mrs. Nichols told the commission:

"I pray that this board may find it in its heart to give Eugene what he wants—to suffer it out—even as God forgave David for the murder of Uriah. And that was premeditated murder."

Make No Demands

Glenn E. Detling, assistant prosecutor of Clark county, who was prosecutor when Koons was convicted by a three-judge court, told the parole commission that neither he nor Prosecutor Stanley N. Husted was "demanding or requesting anything."

"We merely performed our official position as we saw it under the law and did not ask the court for any specific penalty," he said.

"Whatever the commission or the governor does, we'll feel that they are doing their job."

George A. Schwer, Koons' attorney, argued that Koons needed to have his life directed for him.

"Every time this boy is in an institution, he's a model inmate," Schwer said. "When his life is not directed, he goes bad."

Holds 16 Jobs

Schwer also said that Koons had held 16 jobs since his discharge "without honor" from the navy, that he had been married and divorced, that he had never seen his child, and that he had a constant record of insecurity and instability.

Koons' ship was damaged in the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor, the attorney continued, and he went A.W.O.L. when the ship returned to San Francisco for repairs.

Rev. W. A. Wilson, pastor of a Presbyterian church in Springfield, who said he had once served as an attendant in the St. Lawrence county insane asylum at Ogdensburg, N. Y., declared "it was unfair to judge this boy by only 30 days observation at the Lima State hospital for the criminal insane.

"His experience at Pearl Harbor did something to him," Rev. Wilson said. "He has never been right since."

73,570 Vets Get GI Loans In 3 States

Lending institutions had advanced $394,183,946 in home, farm and business loans to 73,570 World War II veterans in Ohio, Michigan and Kentucky under loan guaranty provisions of the GI Bill as of March 1. VA had guaranteed $183,115,361 of the total.

In Ohio, 38,929 veterans had borrowed $222,662,157, with VA guaranteeing $100,053,153.

VA Hospital Load At Peak In 3-State Area

The number of veterans hospitalized by the Veterans Administration in Ohio, Michigan and Kentucky reached a new all-time high on March 1, totalling 10,150.

VA officials said the March 1 total was 1,260 greater than the 8,890 veterans who were hospitalized in VA hospitals and homes and in VA-contract hospitals in the three states on Jan. 1.

In Ohio, VA was providing hospitalization on March 1 for 4,356 in VA hospitals and in private hospitals under contract to VA, compared with 4,005 on Jan. 1.

The increase in the number of hospitalized veterans was accomplished by making a greater number of beds available in existing VA hospitals and as a result of a more rapid turnover of patients through improved medical treatment.

Veterans with service-connected ailments are given top priority for VA hospitalization, but veterans with non-service connected disorders are hospitalized only when beds are available and if they say they cannot afford treatment in other institutions. However, all emergency non-service connected cases receive immediate attention.

SRA Applicants Must Have Security Cards

Veterans must present social security account cards when applying for servicemen's readjustment allowance under the GI bill.

Veterans who do not have these cards may obtain them from their local office of the social security administration. In addition to the social security cards, veterans must present their discharge or separation papers in making initial application for readjustment allowances.

"Autos-for-Amputees" Includes Farm Vehicles

World War II veterans residing on farms may purchase various types of mechanical farm conveyances if they are eligible for vehicles at government expense under the so-called "autos-for-amputees" program.

Eligible veterans living on farms may apply for trucks, tractors, riding plows or other agricultural conveyances instead of automobiles. VA officials emphasized The last day for filing applications is June 30, 1947.

Legislation enacted by congress last August authorized VA to provide an automobile or other conveyance for each World War II veteran entitled to compensation for the loss, or loss of use, of one or both legs at or below the ankle. The cost of each vehicle is limited to $1,600, including any special equipment or attachments.

Questions and Answers

Q. Why is it that National Service Life Insurance premiums are so low, yet there are no restrictions as to occupation, travel or residence"

A. Premiums are kept at a minimum because all operating expenses and all excess costs resulting from death or total disability traceable to the extra hazard of the military or naval service are borne by the government and paid from separate appropriations.

Q. I would like to reinstate my GI insurance term policy which lapsed in 1945, and would like to know how to go about it.

A. Through August 1, 1947, the requirements to reinstate a term policy, regardless of the date of lapse, are the payment of only two monthly premiums and a signed statement that you are in as good health as you were on the date of such lapse. You can obtain an application for reinstatement at any VA office.

Q. My GI insurance premiums have been waived due to a total disability. Can I convert my term insurance to a permanent plan and still have my premiums waived?

A. You have the privilege of converting to ordinary life, 20-payment life, or 30-payment life and the waiver of premiums will remain in effect as long as you are totally disabled.

Q What is the due date of my premium on my GI life insurance policy?

A. The date on which a premium is due is the same date in the month as that on which the insurance originally was made effective. This date is on the insurance certificate.

Communists Boot Good Chance To State Case To U. S. People

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON, March 27—The Communists have booted a beautiful chance to present their case to the American people.

James Marlow

Dennis came here from New York to testify before the house committee on un-American activities. He asked permission to testify and got it.

The committee is considering bills to outlaw the Communist party. It had been hearing a stream of witnesses, all opposed to Communism.

Dennis had the chance of being the only spokesman for it. He came prepared with a 19-page statement, and copies to hand out.

Could Have Large Hearing

By talking to the committee, in front of a swarm of newsmen, Dennis could have outlined his party's views to millions of newspaper readers.

It's customary at a congressional committee hearing for a witness to give his name. Dennis said his name is Eugene Dennis.

The committee asked him if that is his real name. Dennis tried to duck the question.

Then Robert E. Stripling, committee investigator, said there was evidence that Dennis had used a number of names in connection with "fraudulent" passports.

(Stripling later said Dennis' real name is Francis Waldron)

But when Dennis kept on refusing to tell his real name the committee dismissed him. So he never got around to reading his statement.

Charges "Plot"

Dennis said later the committee's insistence upon learning his real name was a "plot" to keep him from reading his statement.

But what of these questions:

He wasn't asked to come here and state his party's case. He asked permission to talk.

Before he came here he must have realized the committee would have checked on his name and might ask him questions about it.

Why then did he ask to testify if he wasn't prepared to answer questions about his identity and then get on with his statement?

Why didn't he expect that kind of questioning before he went to the trouble of preparing a 19-page statement and asking to come here?

If he hadn't asked to come here, he would not now be in the position of a Communist party leader who is unwilling to give his real identity.

Puts Party on Spot

So, instead of getting his party's case across to the American people, he turns upon himself a cold, questioning spotlight which asks "what goes on here?"

Immediately after being dismissed by the committee, Dennis called a news conference in his hotel room. About 12 or 15 newsmen showed up.

He stopped all questions in the beginning and began to orate at such length that one newsman asked: "Did you call us here to make a speech or hold a conference?"

In 1937, Dennis said, he went to China when the Japanese invaded Manchuria so he could help the Chinese people and the "American people, to prevent a Pearl Harbor."

He said he went to China as a representative of the American people. At once he was asked who appointed him a representative. He fumbled with that question, too. But he said:

"You'll excuse me if I got into China by formal and informal means."

He ducked again when asked if he went to China on American passports and, if so, what name he used.

At last he was asked point blank: "Will you, for the last time, get down to cases and answer this question: What's your real name?"

Dennis still ducked. Fed up, the newsmen walked out.

This to me—at a time when the Communist party in this country is very much on the defensive—was the worst job of public relations I've ever seen.

EX-GI TO GET GOLD PAYOFF — Back in New York, Charles and Pete Schwerdt examine some of the gold ore with which they will pay off ex-GI Theodore Elbert, 31-year-old San Francisco painter, who staked the prospecting brothers in 1942, when they were operating a roadstand on the Alcan highway. They estimate Elbert's share will be $100,000.

GABBLE AS HOUSE BURNS

By The Associated Press

NEW PHILADELPHIA, O., March 27 — Damage to the home of Mrs. Dewey Hoover was estimated at $1,000 following a fire yesterday. Mrs. Hoover said two women whom she asked to surrender a party telephone line when she tried to summon firemen told her "We've heard that one before!"

Conservation League Holds Galion Meeting

Special to The Star

GALION, March 27—Mrs. Robert Moulton, former newspaper columnist, and now a resident of Galion, was guest speaker Tuesday night for the guest night meeting of Junior Circle, Child Conservation league. The meeting was held at the home of the president, Mrs. J. D. Dean. The program was announced by the chairman, Mrs. G. R. Kesselring. Besides the speaker, Miss Joan Spaid sang several numbers. She also opened the meeting by singing the devotions. Mrs. W. Y. McCullough was piano accompanist for Miss Spaid.

Plans to attend the installation ceremonies of a new Woman's Relief Corps at Iberia were made when the Galion W. R. C. met Tuesday afternoon at the armory here. Mrs. Carl Coover, department secretary and past department president of Galion will install the officers. At the meeting here relief work for the past two weeks was estimated at $50 and members contributed 16 hours of work toward the project.

St. Petersburg, Fla., Is Mecca for Methuselas

And you ... to see ... oldtimers ... said one ... never heard of any of ...digers keeling over from ...rouble."

Young People Object

...me of the young folks ...n't want the idea spread ... that St. Pete is just a ... for Methuselas.

"...write anything about the ...ousand green benches we ...ere for the old folks," said ... "And don't say any more ...e sidewalk ramps we got ...l chair patients."

...ther resident complained: "We don't have an undue num... ...d people here. You have ...member that you don't see as ...y young people at resorts for ...e simple reason that most young people don't have enough money to go to them."

And the old folks have a good time at much less than it would cost them on Florida's east coast. One of their favorite haunts is the city pier, where they can eat picnic lunches, buy live turtles at fifty cents each to send their grandchildren, and listen to some venerable life of the party thump out on the free piano.

"Believe me if all those endearing young charms."

Times Tougher Once

"Times were tougher during the depression," a resident said. "The cafeterias had to start throwing out tourists who came in, asked for a bowl of hot water, then poured catsup into it to make free soup."

From a town of 4,000 in 1910, St. Petersburg has grown steadily to a population of between 90,000 and 95,000. But it hasn't quite filled out at the speed dreamed of by city fathers during the boom era.

"It was like a big carnival here then," said one veteran wistfully. "You could always tell the real estate men—they wore plus four knickers. They gave away free lunches at auction sales, and one man passed out saltwater taffy. Every real estate office had a Negro quarter or some kind of entertainment."

Large bond issues were floated to build paved streets and sidewalks in every direction, dream lanes for dream people who were to live in dream houses that never were built. Collapse of the boom ended the dreams and left the real estate dealers nothing but their plus fours and some customers nothing but the memory of the taste of salt water taffy.

The palm, the palmetto and the pine put their roots beneath the abandoned pavements, and grass grew in many streets.

"The city covers fifty-five square miles," said a resident who believes it ranks fifteenth in area among the world's cities. There is one stretch along Tyrone boulevard where you can drive three miles without seeing a house. There are also numerous "no hunting or trapping" signs posted within the city limits.

"There are no deer left in St. Petersburg," a friend explained. "But plenty of rabbits, squirrels, possums and rattlesnakes."

New housing developments are gradually linking the wilderness outskirts to the city's builtup area, and the boomtime dream of a generation ago is slowly coming true.

"It Began Years Ago . . .
and continues today

When I first began earning money, my parents advised me to start a savings account at the Home. I soon saw its advantages and continued without urging. When I found the only girl, we had enough saved—together with a mortgage loan—to build a home. This was paid off long ago; but, we've never stopped saving at the Home and we know that when we wish to retire we'll have the money to live comfortably."

Utterly New Kind of Odorless Deodorant Spray Completely Destroys These Embarrassing Household and Pet Odors—Quickly, Safely, Easily!

TAKES "B.O." OUT OF COATS . . . Just spray lightly in underarm area of coat. No need to risk offending through this frequent, but unsuspected, source of odors. NIL may pay for itself, many times over in reduced cleaning bills.

MUSTY CLOTHES CLOSETS lose their odors within a few seconds after spraying with NIL. Use a light NIL mist on walls and outer garments in closets.

FRESHEN MUSTY BASEMENTS. Just spray on walls, floors, or directly on areas where odors originate.

MILDEW ODORS EASY TO KILL NOW! Simply spray mildewed cloth, paper, or other material and spray area where it has been. Mildew odor will no longer "linger on".

AN ODOR-FREE NURSERY is a blessing to mothers—and guests! If child vomits or breaks training, spray NIL on floor, furniture, and clothes affected after removal from child.

EVEN DIAPER ODORS DISAPPEAR after a NIL treatment. Just spray used diaper, after removal from baby, and also diapers in can or bag.

SICKROOM PATIENTS feel better, eat better, when they are not affected by odors from bedpans, bandages, etc. Visitors appreciate it. Spray NIL on outside of offensive bandages; spray bed-pans after using.

ODORS IN UPHOLSTERY caused by pets, spilled drinks, tobacco smoke, or burns, will disappear instantly when areas are sprayed lightly with clean, safe, odorless NIL.

TOBACCO ODORS AND "MORNING AFTER" ODORS from alcohol, smoke, etc., disappear rapidly. Spray curtains, drapes, furniture (avoiding varnished surfaces) in room.

DOG OWNERS AMAZED WITH NIL'S fast, low-cost action in keeping homes free of animal odors. Spray NIL where dog lies or sleeps. Spray or dampen dog, or apply with plastic or rubber comb. Long haired dogs must be treated with comb for real effectiveness. If animal commits a nuisance, spray affected spot to deodorize rug, floor, furniture, etc.

NOW MANY WHO LOVE DOGS, even in small apartments, can love them more! Many who would like to own a dog can now feel the odor-barrier to their enjoyment has been removed.

CAT ODORS GO TOO! Spray cushions, sofa, chairs, other spots cat favors; also spray cat's sand-box with NIL.

BIRD CAGE ODORS EASY TO KILL! Between cleanings, simply spray paper in bottom of cage with NIL.

GETS RID OF "KITCHEN ODORS" from onion, fish, cheese, etc. Moisten cloth with NIL and wipe cutting-board, sink-board, etc. where you have been working with "strong" foods. Rinse board with water.

STOPS SINK AND SEWER ODORS FAST, with only a spoonful poured into the drain. Allow to stand a few minutes.

NO MORE SMELLY GARBAGE CAN—just spray the garbage in can daily. Also spray inside, before and after washing out can. NIL kills residual odors—keeps smell out of your home.

A CLEAN, ODORLESS TOILET BOWL is a sign of a fastidious housewife. Just spray NIL on and in bowl once a day.

WIPES OUT CLOTHES HAMPER ODORS. Just spray in hamper occasionally as dirty clothes accumulate.

TRAILER DWELLERS HAIL NIL. Quickly eliminates "musty" odors, smoke odors, cooking odors that soak into drapes, rugs, upholstery. Makes up for lack of ventilation; a quick daily spray with NIL usually keeps trailer interior as fresh as an open porch.

CAR OWNERS OVERJOYED at the way a NIL spray gets odors out of upholstery and rugs. Tobacco smoke, dog odors, smells from odorous things you carry in the car, all go like magic.

ODOR OF DEAD MOUSE OR RAT GOES FAST with a quick NIL treatment. Spray animal, remove, and spray spot where it has lain.

KILLS EVEN SKUNK ODORS! Soak affected garments in NIL, and wash NIL on skin and hair of animal until odor disappears.

HUNTING-JACKETS, FISHING CLOTHES need NIL—get blood, feather, fish and similar odors out of game-pockets and off your fishing pants and jackets.

A TRULY ODORLESS REST-ROOM in public places, stores, service stations, etc., is not only a blessing to patrons—it's a good-will money-maker for you. Where many products simply "mask" one odor with another, NIL completely destroys rest-room odors without leaving an odor of its own. Spray NIL on and in toilet bowl, on floor, in drains.

HUNDREDS OF COMMERCIAL USES FOR NIL—wherever odors of any kind create a bad effect on either workers or patrons. For plant, home or office, no other product can equal NIL's fast, simple action in destroying embarrassing odors! Write Drug Dept., Skinner Mfg. Co., Omaha, Nebraska.

"NIL Kills Even Odors I Thought Nothing Could Help!"

says Mrs. S., a NIL user

"Why do I like NIL?" writes Mrs. S. "I couldn't stop with giving you just one reason—I have at least four! First: I like NIL because it is odorless. Perfume deodorants are embarrassing to me because they suggest to visitors that maybe I'm a poor housewife who can't keep her house clean and odorless. NIL never embarrasses me.

"Then, I like NIL because it kills even odors I thought couldn't be killed—like taking cigar smoke out of my rugs, drapes and curtains, and keeping our wet basement from smelling moldy.

"Also, I like NIL because with its help I can keep my dog in the house without embarrassing odors. I never believed anything could kill as many odors, or kill them as fast—but NIL surely made a believer out of me!"

We say, with Mrs. S., "You can't believe NIL could do so many things until you've tried it. Get a bottle of NIL today—"NIL that odor"—and see for yourself!

Two Bitter Y. M. C. A. Cage Rivals Paired in Tournament

McMillen, Green Camp K. of P. To Meet Tonight for 4th Time.

Paired tonight in the Y.M.C.A.'s double elimination tournament are the two teams from the AA league who fought it out in a post season game for that league's crown.

The teams are McMillen Feeds and Green Camp K. of P. Green Camp won the championship by downing the Feed club 43 to 38. It was the third time the teams had met and prior to that McMillen had once downed Green Camp and Green Camp had returned the compliment.

Only Ones From League

Now these teams are the only two from their league left in and the winner of this one must hurdle two class A teams to win the Y's city championship.

The teams laying low at present are Guy's Raiders and the Buckeyes. If the Raiders don't knock them off tomorrow night in semi-finals the Buckeyes will get the chance Saturday night and if they fail again on Monday night.

McMillen was the Y champ last season an dstarted strong this year winning the first round of the AA league without a loss. Then Smith's Clothing downed them and in the last game of the second round Green Camp clinched the second round title by doing the same. The Campers again turned the trick for the championship.

Drop First Tourney Start

McMillen dropped their first tourney start to Smith's Clothing 38 to 35 their second straight loss to that outfit. Monday night McMillen refused to bow for the third straight time, winning 51 to 45. The other tournament victory turned in by McMillen was a 48 to 29 victory over the J. C.'s.

In this tournament Green Camp has edged Fairfield 49 to 47, taken Universal Cooler 49 to 42, swamped Martel Independent 113 to 36, and suffered a loss at the hands of Guy's 38 to 28.

Training Camp High Spots

By The Associated Press

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., March 27—Connie Mack said today that Eddie Joost is the best shortstop the Philadelphia Athletics have had since Joe Boley cavorted for the A's back in the pennant-winning days of the late 20's and early 30's.

"He's a good, hustling player," observed the venerable pilot, "and smart. He recalled that when Joost backed up the third baseman the other day and took a hit off his glove for a putout to first, he made a play "we hadn't seen since Chick Galloway and Boley."

"Joost is quick and agile. He stops sharply enough after his initial charge to get 10 or 12 feet in front of the ball and get set for the scoop," Mack pointed out.

MIAMI BEACH, Fla.—Eighteen-year-old Billy Herman Jr. has gone to the minors at his father's bidding. The son of the Pittsburgh Pirate manager was one of two players cut from the squad and was sent to Uniontown of the Mid-Atlantic league. The other was Dewey Soriano, righthander shipped to Indianapolis on option. At the same time, the Bucs acquired Lou Tost from the Braves for slightly more than the $10,000 waiver price.

BARTOW, Fla.—The Detroit Tigers paid a visit to their farm club, the Buffalo Bisons of the International league, for today's exhibition. Bendal rookies George Vico, Johnny Bero, Johnny McHale and Clint Conaiser starred yesterday as the Detroiters came from behind for a 7-6 victory over the Phillies.

SAN FRANCISCO—The New York Giants' exhibition series with the San Francisco Seals now stands at 3-all. The Giants won the first three games with the Seals in Honolulu and dropped the last two. Yesterday, in a renewal of the series at Seals stadium here, Lefty O'Doul's gang squared it by winning 3-2 in 11 innings.

• • •

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla.—Johnnny Lindell, the stand-in for Joe DiMaggio, stood out by belting two homers as the New York Yankees crushed the world champion St. Louis Cardinals 10-1 yesterday.

LOS ANGELES—Chicago Cubs pitcher Ed Hanyzewski, who was sold to Oakland of the Pacific Coast league, has gone to his home in South Bent, Ind., because of his son's illness. Hanyzewski refuses to report to Oakland and may be unconditionally released by the Cubs.

LOS ANGELES—Pitcher Hi Bithorn, recently obtained from the Pirates on waivers was in a Chicago White Sox uniform today after arriving from Florida by plane. He hasn't yet signed a contract, however, and may be released to the Hollywood club, from where he was originally drafted by the Cubs.

HAVANA—Jackie Robinson, the star infielder of the Montreal Royals who Brooklyn Manager Leo Durocher wanted to observe in last night's exhibition game here, was due to be X-rayed today to determine the extent of a back injury suffered in the morning's practice.

MIAMI—The St. Louis Browns got good pitching again yesterday, backed it up with perfect fielding and timely hitting and trimmed the Boston Braves 3-0.

Amvets Charge Major Loops with Violation

WASHINGTON, March 27—The American Veterans of World War II announced today it is asking the justice department for legal proceedings against three major baseball clubs under the selective service act.

The Amvets declared there has been "flagrant disregard for the reemployment rights" of Steve Sundra, former St. Louis Browns pitcher, Russell Kerns, former Detroit Tigers catcher, Benny McCoy, former Philadelphia Athletics infielder, and Bob Harris, former Athletics pitcher.

At the same time the veterans organization sent an open letter to Baseball Commissioner A. B. Chandler.

SEEREY'S BOOMING BAT PEPS INDIANS

Chunky Outfielder Clouts 4th Homer in 4 Days.

By The Associated Press

LOS ANGELES, March 27—Pat Seerey is on a hitting rampage these days and things are looking a little brighter for the Cleveland Indians.

The portly fly chaser, who usually strikes out or belts the ball over the outlying fences, clouted his fourth round tripper in as many days yesterday as the Tribe registered its first victory over the Chicago Cubs, 13 to 4. His homer boosted his runs-batted-in figure to 14 for the spring exhibition season.

Outfielder Hal Peck also hit for the circuit as the Indians collected a total fo 16 hits.

In each of the second and seventh innings 10 Indians came to bat as the attack opened against rookie Cliff Chambers and was continued against Russ Meers, Paul Erickson and Hank Wyse.

Evans Tells Story of Greenberg Sale

By FRANK ECK
Associated Press Sports Writer

LAKELAND, Fla.—Billy Evans, new general manager of the Detroit Tigers, was sitting in the stands watching the batting drill and talking with scout Wish Egan and a couple of baseball writers. The talk got around to Hank Greenberg, the 36-year-old home run king the Tigers waived out of the American League and sold to the Pittsburgh Pirates.

"Greenberg had the most unusual contract of all time," said Evans. "You had to see it to appreciate the fact that Hank is a smart fellow. Detroit paid him $55,000 last season and when he was sold early this year he got another $20,000 due to a clause he asked to have inserted in his 1946 contract last Aug. 20 when he wasn't going so well and was on the verge of quitting.

Hank May Top Babe

"Hank told George Trautman (former Detroit general manager) that his contract would be fairer if he were guaranteed $20,000 if he ever retired, was sold or traded in any season.

"Greenberg got the $20,000 this year."

That probably makes Hank a higher paid man than Babe Ruth who drew the top salary with an $80,000 contract. Greenberg, it is believed, signed with the Pirates for $80,000. Add to this the $20,000 he received from Detroit after being sold Jan. 18 and you have a $100,000 ballplayer.

"Late last season I met Frank McKinney, one of the Pirate owners," says Evans.

"'Here I've been president of the Pirates since July and I've been telling everybody how we'll improve the team. I haven't bought one player yet. I need some interim ballplayers. You know, fellows who still have a year or so left, fellows who can fill in until we bring along some young players,' said McKinney.

"At the time I was president of the Southern Association and didn't know of any 'interim ballplayers.'

"Then in January after Trautman resigned to become president of National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues I succeeded him in Detroit.

HANK GREENBERG
Rolling in Dough

"The morning I started work in Detroit I had a hot potato dropped in my lap. Hank Greenberg had been quoted as saying he might like to finish his playing days with the New York Yankees. Mr. Briggs (President Walter O. Briggs of Detroit) didn't like the idea and within two hours after reporting to my new employer I had the Greenberg case dropped in my lap.

"I got McKinney on the phone and said, 'I have that interim ballplayer you spoke about. He's Greenberg. I think we can get waivers on him but don't take him unless you can afford to pay him.'

"That's how the Pirates got Mister Greenberg, the 'interim ballplayer'."

Herman Will Play

It seems the Pirates have six other "interim ballplayers," players who figure to make the Buccaneers a potential first division club until their farm tree in Indianapolis bears fruit. Even Manager Billy Herman would come in this category, for at 37 he figures to do some playing for Pittsburgh.

Other veterans in this class are Pitchers Hi Bithorn, 30, picked up from the Cubs; Ernie Bonham, 33, ex-Yankee; Art Herring, 39, former Dodger, and Hugh Mulcahy, 33, ex-Phillie; and infielder Jimmy Bloodworth, 33, another ex-Tiger.

FIGHTS LAST NIGHT

By The Associated Press

MILWAUKEE — Jimmy Sherrer, 150, Milwaukee, outpointed Ralph Zannelli, 142½, Providence, 10.

BUFFALO, N. Y.—Joe Mattel, 204½, Endicott, knocked out Clarence Brown, 198, Chicago, 2.

BINGHAMTON, N. Y.—Jim Royce, 175, Albany, KO'd Nick Barone, 172, Syracuse, 8.

In Elizabethan England, slandering persons were often pilloried and had their ears nailed back.

MANAGER LEO DUROCHER (right) and the Dodgers' traveling secretary, Harold Parrott, are shown at Sarasota, Fla., where the Lip was called before Commissioner Chandler as a result of charges that Larry MacPhail, president of the Yanks, had consorted with gamblers in Havana, Cuba.

Maynard DeWitt Farmed Out By Montreal Club

Maynard DeWitt apparently won't make the jump from class D to AAA ball in one season after all.

Zanesville's jet propelled outfielder, who set a modern minor league base stealing record in the Ohio State league last year, has been farmed out by Montreala of the International league, according to the Zanesville Signal.

DeWitt has been working out with the Montreal club at Havana and appeared in 10 games against the parent Brooklyn Dodgers. A batting weakness, particularly from the port side, of this switch hitter showed up against experienced major league pitching.

Danville or Newport News of the Dodger farm chain are expected to benefit from his services this year.

Brigham Young, Mormon leader died in 1877, was survived by 17 wives and 47 children.

EVERS CRITICALLY ILL

By The Associated Press

ALBANY, N. Y., March 27 — Johnny Evers, 65, former major league star of the Chicago Cubs and Boston Braves, remained in critical condition at St. Peter's hospital today after suffering a cerebral hemorrhage Tuesday.

Johnny Rife Rolls 298 for Top Marion Bowling Score Record

Johnny Rife, of 429½ Windsor street, Marion's top golfer last season, earned laurels in another field of sports last night, rolling a 298 game with the Osgood Lathes team in the Osgood Affiliated league at Palace Recreation. He came within two points of a perfect score.

This is, according to Jerry Anderson, manager of the alleys, the highest single game score ever turned in in the history of bowling in this city. A 290 game rolled several years ago by Lou Myers, also with Osgood, had stood as the city's high.

Rife will be awarded a bronze medal by the American Bowling Conference for his accomplishment.

Sets Local Mark

A left hander, Rife pocketed the ball 11 straight times. On his crucial twelfth attempt the ball crossed the alleys to the Brooklyn right side of the headpin and two pins remained standing.

The pins he rolled against were pulled from the alley after his game so that a representative from the A.B.C. can check them as being A.B.C. official. The official is expected at the alleys today.

Rife has been averaging 164 in league bowling this season and in his other two games maintained his average with scores of 164 and 167.

Won Golf Trophy

As a golfer Rife won the Marion Star trophy in a golf tournament at the Marion Country club last fall and he has won many other awards on the links.

Bowling experts say that top performances are seldom given by a southpaw.

Rife is employed by the Osgood Co.

BOWLING RESULTS

Friend, rolling at Palace recreation in the Depot Men's league Tuesday night, turned in games of 227, 217, finishing with a 610 series.

Little topped the mark twice in the Marion Power Shovel league with scores of 224 and 213. Jobe rolled the high series, 567, including a 206 single game.

Prior topped performers in the Depot Women's league with the high single game 176 and high three-game total 462.

Better than 200 scores turned in in the M.P.S. loop were by Owens 204, Taylor 226, Norris 209, Lusch 211, Lashey 211, Gilmore 208, and Harding 211.

Nicolosi rolled a 200 single game in the depot men's league.

Reds Find "Williams Shift" Is Boomerang

By The Associated Press

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 27—The Cincinnati Reds call on a pair of rookie pitchers, Everet Lively and Mike Schultz, to silence the bats of the world champion St. Louis Cardinals in an exhibition game here today.

Johnny Neun used the right field shift against Ted Williams yesterday, when Cincinnati met the Boston Red Sox, and the strategy backfired as the Reds lost 5-2.

A "tandem to the right" defense was ordered in the third inning when big Ted came to bat with two mates aboard. He promptly pushed a two-bagger through the undefended third base spot to count the second and third runs of the inning and give his team a 3-2 lead.

STOCKS GENERALLY EXTEND ADVANCE

NEW YORK, March 27—Stocks generally extended their advance by fractions to 2 points or so in today's market although quick profit cashing by professionals restrained many leaders

Dealings slowed after a fast opening in which sizable blocks changed hands. Extreme gains were reduced near the fourth hour and there was a smattering of losers in evidence.

U. S. Industrial Chemicals and Royal Typewriter were lifted following pleasing dividends. Ahead most of the time were Allied Chemical, Dow Chemical, Du Pont Johns-Manville, U. S Steel, U. S Rubber, General Motors, International Paper, Gillette Razor, Monsanto Chemical, Standard Oil (NJ), Montgomery Ward and International Harvester.

Occasional stumblers included Bethlehem, Woolworth, American Telephone, Union Carbide Pullman, Texas Co. and Southern Railway.

LOVE'S PERILOUS PATH

By ADELE GARRISON

DICKY and I are fleet of foot, but though we started for the bedroom at Noel's outcry, following his frenzied footsteps back to Mary's bedside, we found that rotund, elderly Dr. Twitchell was close at our heels, breathing a bit heavily, it is true, but still in the forefront of action.

"You men stand at one side!" he ordered. "Mrs. Graham, stand close beside me here!"

Mary Unconscious

He was stooping over Mary as he spoke. She lay against her pillows as if she were asleep, but I did not need Dr. Twitchell's lifting of her eyelids, or his close scrutiny of her lips, from which he first carefully wiped the lipstick, to know that she was unconscious

"She has fainted," he said, with his fingers on her pulse "But do not be alarmed. She will come out of it presently. If you can find any smelling salts, Mrs. Graham, you might wave them under her nose."

His tone reassured us. Even Noel began to look a trifle less distraught Then Dr. Twitchell shot a question at him.

"What happened?" he queried "What made her faint? Did you say anything exciting to her? Did you reprove her about anything?"

"No! No!" Noel said vehemently, and Dicky put an arm around his shoulders.

"Steady, lad!" he said "We all know you were not to blame. But we must know what has happened. Tell us in your own way."

Found His Speech

Noel gulped, then found his speech, although it faltered at first.

"I never dreamed she was excited or worried about anything," he said. "At first we just talked about how wonderful it was to be together again. I told her how glad I was to have her home, and she told me how glad she was to be here.

"She'd been smiling, and seemed just like her old self," he went on. "Then, all at once, her face seemed to change—I can't express it—it seemed secretive some way—and she asked me if I would do something for her.

"I told her anything within my power," he said, "and then—and then—she asked me if I would go into your desk, Aunt Madge, take out the manuscript of the play you are writing for her and give it to her so she could hide it under her sheets.

"She said," he went on, his shamed face flushing, "that she meant to ask Dr. Twitchell to let her study it tonight, but that she could see he wouldn't let her look at it.

"She told me," he went on, after a pause as painful to Dicky and me as it patently was to him, "that she would go mad if she couldn't get to study her lines in that play, and that she had a plan all concocted to make Dr Twitchell and Aunt Madge believe she had swallowed the sleeping tablet she was scheduled to take, and that then, after Aunt Madge had gone to sleep, she was going to study those lines."

"Did you refuse to do what she asked?" Dr. Twitchell demanded

Didn't Have a Chance

"I didn't have a chance to refuse or say anything," Noel said "She was getting more excited every second as she talked, and after she said she was going to study the lines after Aunt Madge had gone to sleep, she looked wildly all around the room. Then she caught at my hands, and almost screamed: 'I tell you, Noel, I've got to prove to myself—prove to myself—it isn't true or else I want to die!'

"Then," he said, with remembered anguish in his voice, "at the word 'die,' her hands slipped from mine, and she slumped back against her pillows the way she is now. I—I—thought she was dead, and I rushed out for you Oh, look! Her eyes are opening! Mary! Darling! Do you know me?"

"Hush!" Dr Twitchell said almost savagely.

Then he bent over Mary, whose eyes were traveling from one to another of us.

"What happened?" she whispered. "Did I faint?"

Then panic flashed into her eyes, and she screamed weakly at her husband

"Noel! Have you told them anything I said?"
